AXEL ANTAS

Axel Antas (b. 1976) is a multi-disciplinary artist whose works look critically at the relationship between humans and the natural world. Antas' oeuvre consists of a combination of photography, site-specific installation, drawing and film. Antas, who has exhibited widely since 2000, explains that he explores the awkwardness and disharmony of man's failure to connect with his surroundings. Antas studied at The Nordic School of Art, Kokkola, Finland (1997), before taking a B.A. at Goldsmiths College, London, UK (2000).

His recent solo exhibitions include: upcoming museum exhibition (May 2023) Nothing is made, nothing disappears at Poikilo Art Museum in Kouvola, Finland, Stories make worlds / Worlds make stories, Galleria Heino, Finland (2019), Long Player and Format, Malmö, Sweden (2016); Long Player, Sinne, Helsinki, Finland (2015); Natural High Frequency, Galleria Heino, Finland (2014); New to nature, Rokeby gallery, London UK (2011). Select group exhibitions include the North Coast Art Triennale in Denmark (2019), Volta Basel and Chart Art fair Copenhagen both solo project with Galleria Heino (2019); Green Land, Kerava Art Museum Sinkka, Kerava, Finland (2017); Alchemy Film festival, Hawick, Scotland (2016).

His work is featured in public and private collections including: Helsinki Art Museum, Houthoff Buruma (Netherlands), Kiasma Museum of Contemporary Art (Helsinki), Pro Artibus (Finland), Saastamoinen Foundation Art Collection (Finland), Wihuri Foundation Art Collection (Finland).
